

Some examples of Green Mulch (native plants as ground covers)

 Green and Gold Chrysogonum virginianum L. Bloom time – Apr.- Oct. Part Shade Moist, but well-drained	 Dwarf Crested Iris Iris cristata Bloom time – Mar. – May Part Shade, shade Moist	 Pussytoes Antennaria plantaginifolia Bloom time – Mar. – June Sun, part shade Dry
 Wild Strawberry Fragaria virginiana Bloom time – Apr. – June Sun, part shade Dry	 Lyre Sage Salvia lyrata Bloom time – Mar. – June Sun, part shade, shade Dry, moist	 Blue-eyed Grass Sisyrinchium angustifolium Bloom time – Mar. – July Sun, part shade Moist, wet
 Wild pinks Silene caroliniana Bloom time – Apr. – June Part shade Moist	 Woodland Stonecrop Sedum ternatum Bloom time – Apr. – June Part shade Moist	 Common Violets Viola sororia Bloom time – Mar. – May Sun, part shade Moist

Ladybird Johnson Wildflower Center – www.wildflower.org

Digital Atlas of Virginia Flora – www.vaplantatlas.org